NATIONAL SEMINAR ON
ROLE OF LIBRARIES IN PROMOTING QUALITY EDUCATION AND RESEARCH
8TH-9TH December 2017

About NIT, Raipur

National Institute of Technology Raipur (Formerly Government Engineering College) situated in Raipur, the capital of Chhattisgarh state, has proven to be "avant-grade' in the field of science and technology over past few decades in this region. The institute was established with sweet memory of foundation ceremony by our president Hon'ble Dr. Rajendra Prasad on 14th September 1956 and was upgraded to National Institute of Technology in 1st December 2005. At present the institute offers courses at graduate, post graduate and Ph.D level.

About Central Library

The Central Library of NIT, Raipur has good collections of text books, reference books, e-books and journals archives. Besides it has subscription to numbers of print journals and online databases/journals.It caters to the information and document need of nearly 5000 users consisting of faculty members, staff, B.Tech/M.Tech/MCA students and research scholars satisfactorily.

About the Seminar

Libraries since their inception have been playing important role in academia. Their role has been indispensable and inseparable for an institution either responsible for or aiming at promoting and providing quality education & research. But with the advancement and ever-changing ICT, a large numbers of information are generated in all fields of knowledge leading to information explosion. Commensurately, collections of libraries changed from print only to print, electronic (online and offline), digital and so on. Also users' information seeking behaviors have changed drastically and are finding themselves more comfortable with various electronic gadgets to use the library resources and service for their study and research.

In this context providing authentic and right information within a limited time span to users has been important task for any library. Accordingly libraries are acquiring various types of resources, tools and using various techniques to promote quality education and research.

The objective of the seminar is to discuss about the resources, tools and techniques used in libraries and find out measures to enable libraries to promote quality education and research in a better way.
