- 2.6 which is required to be disclosed by applicable law or court order or by a party's regulatory body, which is empowered by Statute or Statutory Instrument, but only to the extent of such disclosure and the Receiving Party shall notify the Disclosing Party promptly of any such request and shall not otherwise be released from their obligations of confidentiality hereunder.
3. Each of the parties shall be responsible for and primarily liable for any acts or omissions of its associates and associated companies (as defined in the Corporation Tax Act 2010 sections 448 and 449 or as amended or re-enacted from time to time) and all officers, employees, servants, agents or professional advisers of such person which would have been a breach of this Agreement were it done or omitted to be done by the Receiving Party.
4. In relation to Confidential Information received from the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party agrees as follows:
- 4.1 to treat the Confidential Information in confidence and to use it only for the Purpose;
- 4.2 not to copy or write down any part of the Confidential Information except as is reasonably necessary for the Purpose;
- 4.3 to disclose the Confidential Information only to such of their employees as need to know the Confidential Information for the Purpose;
- 4.4 to treat the Confidential Information with the same degree of care and with sufficient protection from unauthorised disclosure as the Receiving Party uses to maintain its own confidential or proprietary information.
5. The Receiving Party shall:
- 5.1 at the Disclosing Party's request promptly return all documents, materials and records and all copies of the Confidential Information to the Disclosing Party and permanently delete any such Confidential Information from any electronic storage media or memory, subject only to the ability to retain one (1) copy solely for audit/legal compliance purposes;
- 5.2 remain bound by Clause 4 above for a period of five (5) years from the date of disclosure of the Confidential Information.
6. If a party does not enforce a right available to it under this Agreement in any particular instance, then that will not prevent it from enforcing that right in future or in any other instance.
7. Neither party shall assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party.
8. This Agreement does not grant any right or licence under either party's intellectual property rights.
