

Refund Rules

1. Refund of Fee against cancellation during the ongoing admission process by the concerned Central Counselling Authority (CCA).

1.1 If a candidate cancels his /her admission when admission process is going on, the refund rules will be governed by the rules of the concerned CCA. In case a student cancels admission on or before the cutoff date for cancellation as notified by the concerned CCA, amount as prescribed by the concerned CCA shall be deducted from the deposited fee. However SC/ST candidates will be exempt from above deduction.

1.2. If a candidate cancels his/her admission after cutoff date, he/she will be entitled for refund by deducting a sum of Rs 10000/- (Rs. Ten Thousand Only) provided CCA or the Institute has an opportunity to offer his/her vacant seat to other candidates. Otherwise he/she will be entitled for refund of caution money (Rs.2000) only. However SC/ST candidates will be exempt from above deduction.

2. Refund of Fee in case candidates who could not clear their qualifying examination within the stipulated period given by CCA or the Institute.

His /her admission will be treated as cancelled and only caution money (Rs.2000) will be refunded.

3: Refund in case of unfortunate Death of a Student.

Rs. 1000/- (One Thousand Only) will be deducted and the rest amount for the respective year/semester as the case shall be refunded.

4: Refund in case of Detained /debarred Students.

If a student has paid the fee for the semester in which he/she can't be admitted due to detention, the fee paid shall be adjusted against the corresponding semester whenever he/she becomes eligible for admission. However such adjustment in fee will not be allowed if a student is not able to get admission due to any punishment imposed by the institute administration.

Please note that clause No.1 & 2 are applicable to students admitted in first year and rest of rules for all students of the Institute, till further orders.
