Refund Rules for Session 2021-22

1- Refund of Fee against cancellation during the ongoing counseling and admission process [by the concerned Central Counseling Authority for UG/PG]: If a candidate cancels his /her admission during the counseling/admission process, the withdrawal/cancellation rules of the concerned Central Counseling Authority will be applicable.

2- For PG programme, if a candidate cancels his/her admission before cutoff date decided by the institute, he/she will be entitled for refund after deduction of a sum of Rs 10000/- (Rs. Ten Thousand Only) provided the institute has an opportunity to offer his/her vacant seat to another candidate.

3- For UG and PG programme, if a candidate cancels his/her admission after cutoff date decided by the institute and the institute does not have any chance to fill up the seat thus vacated, no fee will be refundable to the such candidates. This will also apply to those candidates who do not report/take admission after the final round of allotment.

4- Refund of Fee in case candidates who could not clear their qualifying examination within the stipulated period given by the counseling authority or the Institute: The admission will be treated as cancelled and candidate is not eligible for any refund. This will also apply to those candidates who do not fulfill the eligibility criteria laid by Central Counseling Authority.

However, in above mentioned cases, the deduction amount (in any case) will not exceed the applicable total annual institute fee in respective categories of a student.

5- Refund in case of unfortunate Death of a Student: No amount will be deducted from the annual/semester fee deposited by the student and the full amount shall be refunded.

The above rules shall remain applicable till further orders.
