

GE Edison Challenge '2016

Open Innovation Challenge

Team Phoenix from NIT-Raipur were placed among the top 25 finalist from India in this challenge where they proposed their idea of the device "MAAYA" that stands for Multiple Teleconnectivity Apparatus and its Yester Architecture which is a SOC which solves the no network problem across the Indian Railways . The team consisted of :

Aditya Om (Team Leader)	8 th Sem	Dept. of Electronics and Telecommunications
Kushagra Dar	6th Sem	Dept. of Computer Science and Engineering
Parag Patidar	6 th Sem	Dept. of Electronics and Telecommunications
Lalit Chauhan	6 th Sem	Dept. of Information Technology

The National Finals were held at GE John F. Welch Technology Centre, Bangalore from 15th March 2016 to 17th March 2016.

This is to certify that

Kushagra Dar

from
NIT-Raipur

is a finalist at the GE Edison Challenge 2016.

Sukla Chandra

Sukla Chandra

General Manager, GE Global Research Bangalore
Director, Patent Analytics Centre of Excellence
GE India Technology Centre

THE GE
EDISON
CHALLENGE 2016